Hiring manager

Dear Hiring manager,

I'm writing to go apply for a sales associates position at AT&T. The experience that I had during my internship job was astounding. Practicing these couple of months has helped me a to be ready for it and same way that YearUp has prepared me. I can say that I am ideal for this job on account of my enthusiasm for helping others and selling. I would be a significant colleague since I likewise work incredible when it's with regards to team work.

I have had a few of various customer experience. At Chili's Brinker International company, my main priority was to take care of the guests, as a waiter I would ensure the guest is fulfilled and happy, and be patient and positive when any issues occur. It was a very exciting involvement with my internship with AT&T yet I have shown that I could be a great worker.

I am and always been a devoted and dependable employer, flexible as well. I would appreciate to receive this opportunity and have the option to show my abilities for this position, I anticipate hearing from you, Thank you.

Sincerely,

Anaelis Gonzalez
